

Craig Lisko, Partner

Professional experience

Craig has over 15 years of public accounting experience, all with Loveridge Hunt. He has spent his time in the firm's tax department working his way from tax staff accountant to tax manager to partner. He oversees the tax department and is experienced dealing with tax issues involving corporations, partnerships, tax-exempt entities and individuals.

Professional Activities

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants
- Treasurer, Snohomish Valley Junior Football Association

Education

Craig received his Bachelor's of Art in Accounting at Pacific University and his Master's of Science in Taxation at Golden Gate University.

Personal Activities

Craig enjoys coaching and watching football

Contact

(425) 453-2088 ext. 5208

Service Area

Tax

Industries

Affordable Housing
Not-for-profit
Housing Authorities